

Newburgh prepares for weekend NRP rally

By FRED GERMAIN

NEWBURGH

Newburgh officials and businessmen have taken extensive precautions to protect the city, its people, and property in the event of riot.

The immediate danger, in the eyes of city officials and residents, is Saturday night when a band of neo-Nazis will attempt to hold a rally in or near the Newburgh courthouse.

The possible danger of racial flareup is also recognized.

A look at the business community:

Firearms ban

Thursday you could not buy a gun in Newburgh. On a tour of shops that normally sell firearms, nothing but empty racks was seen. The guns have been locked away.

Along Broadway, on side streets, and even across the city line in Lloyd's, there are no rifles, shotguns or pistols on display. The most dangerous weapons to be found are bows, arrows, and hunting knives.

One shopkeeper said he experienced a "run" on firearms last week and decided to remove them. Apparently the rest of the businessmen, concerned more with Newburgh than ringing cash registers, had the same idea.

Those who would talk about this decision, and there were few, said it was their choice for the safety of the citizens and their buildings, rather than a "directive" from some official as was rumored.

Some businessmen and bars plan to close early or not open at all Saturday. Here again, the move appears to be one of individual initiative.

As far as could be determined, there has been no "suggestion" -- one way or another -- from any official. The chamber of commerce has taken no general stand. More than one businessman said he plans to remove the stock from his windows.

In the official community:

City Manager Paul L. McCauley Thursday morning was directed by the city council "to exercise full responsibility as the chief executive of the city and to take all necessary measures to protect the health, welfare, and safety of all the people of the City of Newburgh."

The council's action gives McCauley a blank check to cope with trouble.

Before giving him the right and responsibility to take "all" necessary measures, McCauley told the council the steps he has taken "for the protection of persons and property in the city."

"It was unanimously agreed," a prepared statement on the conference reads, "... that the best method of preventing an incident that might lead to disorder is to call upon all citizens and organizations not to congregate or assemble or demonstrate in any portion of the city, and particularly the courthouse area this Saturday evening."

It continues, "The city manager, with the support of the mayor and council, has taken certain necessary precautions because of the unusual situations developing in the country as well as in the State of New York."

As one step, McCauley has traveled to Plainfield, a New Jersey community where riots took three lives last week, on two occasions in the last few days.

These trips mesh with slogans he uses when talking about Saturday, Sunday, or any of the summer days ahead.

"Preparedness is a deterrent," he says. "Plan as much as possible."

He went to Plainfield the first time to talk to police and city officials. He went, he said, to ask: "What effective tactics they used. What were their mistakes: What to do and what not to do. Like, 'Don't use an untrained man when a specialist is needed.'"

3 tactical squads

McCauley says the city now has three "tactical squads" of these specialists. Last year it had one.

The squads, he said, have undergone training for more than a year. He decided not to go into details, except to say similar units in other cities have proved effective.

and McCauley attended the FBI riot control school in Goshen Tuesday. The three-hour instruction was "definitely worthwhile," he said.

His second trip to Plainfield was not to talk to officials, but to speak with ordinary citizens. He went to learn their views, their assessments.

He has also spoken with officials in Newark.

One difference McCauley said he found between these communities and Newburgh was the relationship between people and police.

"Neither could come close to Newburgh in the good relations our police have with the city's minority groups," he said. In support of this view he cited a recent Times Herald-record interview with Tyrone Crabb, interim chief of Newburgh's NAACP.

Crabb had been asked, "In many cases a riot is sparked by a relatively minor incident with police. How are relations between the 'ghettoized' Negro and the city law enforcers?"

He replied, "This is one of the bright spots. As far as I can see, police relations have been fairly good. The police department, especially downtown, has been fairly cordial.

"The understanding is a matter of the police department being aware of the problems of the Negro, and the Negro being aware of the position of the police. Basically, the police are here to protect everyone regardless of race, color or creed."

Beyond police training, several plans of action have been mapped out for the city, McCauley said. These plans are city-wide and have been the subject of conferences with the police.

Newburgh also has bought new equipment to supplement its riot control stores, he said.

Plans have been made for traffic and crowd control and communications. Barricades have been assembled and stored.

All vacations canceled

All city departments, like fire, police, and public works, have been placed on "standby," McCauley said. All leaves and vacations for the police force have been canceled.

The force now stands at 66 men, he said, one man over strength. Conferences have been held with the county sheriff's department and state police, and contact made with the governor's office. Albany has assured the city, he said, the state will back Newburgh "to the Nth degree."

McCauley said he plans to take personal charge of the police department Saturday and at any other time of crisis.

How does McCauley assess Newburgh's situation?

First, he rejects the word "tension" as it reflects a picture of racial strife about to come to a boil. This is not the situation, he says.

"I think we have a great deal of fear in this city. The people are afraid of what has happened in Detroit, Newark, Plainfield, and Nyack.

Civil liberties unit to challenge NRP rally ban

By AL WINSLOW

NEWBURGH The New York Civil Liberties Union will take the City of Newburgh to court in an attempt to re-open Orange County's Newburgh courthouse to the National Renaissance Party.

Claiming the city will be in contempt of a high court ruling if it bars the NRP from the courthouse, the NYCLU Wednesday announced it is drawing up papers for the legal action.

The civil liberties group will ask a Supreme Court Justice to enforce a State Court of Appeals decision permitting the NRP to use the Newburgh facility for its rally. The case could be decided by Saturday, thus allowing the NRP to go ahead with its scheduled Saturday night rally, NYCLU attorney Jeremiah Gutman said. In any case, the NYCLU will ask that the city be punished for "violating the civil rights" of the NRP, Gutman said.

Gutman expressed confidence that a court would rule in favor of the NRP, since the court, in effect, would only be asked to uphold a decision of the Court of Appeals. He declined to name the justice who would be asked to hear the case.

Newburgh City Manager Paul L. McCauley, fearful that violence could result if the NRP were allowed to hold the rally, Monday declared the courthouse unsafe under the city's fire ordinance. He closed it to all non-court functions.

Gutman, who has represented the NRP throughout its two year battle to gain access to the courthouse, claimed the city's move violated a State Court of Appeals decision, a local Supreme Court order, and the First and Fourteenth Amendments.

The city is "disingenuously enforcing this ordinance" to sidestep the court's decision, Gutman charged.

The State Court of Appeals ruled in June that Orange County must open the courthouse to the NRP since it allows other political parties to meet there.

Though the Court of Appeals directed its decision at Orange County rather than the city, the city must still abide by it, Gutman claimed. "It is an established principle," he said, "that he who knows of a court order and who interferes with it is guilty of contempt of court."

Gutman said he seriously doubted that the ordinance under which the city acted is valid to begin with. Even if the ordinance is valid itself, it is rendered invalid by the fact that it is being directed exclusively at the NRP, Gutman claimed. Gutman Tuesday notified McCauley and Corporation Counsel Elliot M. Weiner of the NYCLU's intention.

McCauley later denied that the courthouse closing was directed exclusively at the NRP since, he said, it applies to anyone who wants to use the courthouse. "All I'm doing is exercising a local law," the city manager said. "This is not even a decision for me. It is a responsibility. Since the law is there, I must enforce it."

Despite McCauley's canceling of the rally, NRP director James H. Madole announced he still plans to try to gain access to the courthouse. If the NRP is refused admittance, it will hold its rally on the lawn outside the courthouse, Madole said.

Street Incidents Began After Start of NRP Rally

By WARD POCHÉ

Smashed windows, arrests and some looting marked Saturday evening and early Sunday in Newburgh.

Some bands of Negro youths ranged through the city smashing windows, but Newburgh police with a highly efficient communications system quickly moved to trouble scenes.

Competency of police—particularly in the area of the Orange County Courthouse on Grand and First Street—was praised by observers.

The rash of window breaking started after a band of "enraged" Negroes left the courthouse where the neo-Nazi National Renaissance Party was holding an anti-Negro, anti-Jewish rally to promote its hate philosophy.

Newburgh City Manager Paul L. McCauley allowed the NRP use of the courthouse on the basis of a court order superseding an earlier refusal because the building did not conform to the city's fire codes.

As Negroes began arriving at the courthouse to listen to the NRP speakers, Sheriff Horace Ketcham moved to stop a group. Jeremiah Gutman, American Civil Liberties Union attorney representing the NRP, argued in favor of their admission.

He said he would fight just as hard for admission of the Negroes as he had done to get the NRP permission to use the courthouse.

"My white skin got me into the building," he said. "Why shouldn't these other people have the same privilege?"

Mr. McCauley overheard what was taking place, and said the Negroes should be admitted.

As the NRP speakers harangued Negroes a group of about 25 Negroes left the courthouse. They were mixed between those who just wanted to leave and let the NRP "speak to the walls" and those who indicated they were "enraged" by what was said.

A group of a half-dozen or so led the way, followed by other small groups until there were 26 Negroes in the courtroom at the start of the meeting.

As the rally progressed and the shouting on both sides rose to a crescendo, one of the Negro spokesmen shouted: "Let's get out of here and let them speak to the four walls." Most of the Negro audience moved slowly toward the exit.

There were those in the group who urged the others to pay no attention to the NRP. Still they congregated on the courthouse steps arguing with deputies of the Orange County Sheriff's office, who finally formed a line blocking off the steps.

One of those who left argued about his Vietnam experiences as compared to what the NRP had done there and declared it wasn't right.

Persons who wanted to go back to the courthouse were advised that this was just what the NRP wanted.

The group then moved from the courthouse across Grand Street behind a rope barricade set up by Newburgh police, some started to harass police.

Mr. McCauley moved in among the spectators, pleading with them to break up and go home so that there wouldn't be any trouble. If they didn't, they would be doing "just what the NRP wants," he said.

Also walking along the line and urging the people to go quietly were Councilman Lawrence Herbst and Dr. Arnold S. Banks, a physician who apparently knew quite a few of those in the street.

Occasionally, one of the group's leaders would appear to heed the advice and say, "Let's break this up and go home." But almost invariably he would be shouted down and the crowd would surge forward again. Two or three empty bottles were thrown into the street. One broke and scattered glass on the pavement. Another, wrapped in a brown bag, did not break.

More discussion and a group broke through the rope barricade and ran in front of the Hotel Palatine. One man was arrested for cutting the rope and causing a disturbance.

A tactical squad of Newburgh police formed a shoulder to shoulder and whipped toward the crowd in a slant formation and dispersed it down Second Street toward the river.

As the crowd swept back a Negro on crutches was knocked to the ground, picked up by another Negro and a police officer and assisted around the corner.

From this point on, action at the courthouse became routine and was followed by the first reports of window smashing.

The earliest smashing report was a market at Lander and First Street. Police moved quickly into the area and moved in the paddy wagon but made no immediate arrests in the area.

As reporters returned to the courthouse area they witnessed a group of Negro youths about a block away smashing another window.

The NRP meeting had broken up and its officers accepted the offer of police to be transported out of the area to their bus in the police paddy wagon and another vehicle.

A rain which started at about 5:45 p.m., let up about an hour before the NRP rally was due to start at 7:30.

Police estimated that about 100 persons — mostly Negroes — stood behind roped barricades in the courthouse area observing the scene peaceably. By the time the NRP rally ended — about a half hour before its court-approved time of 10:30 p.m. — no more than a handful of persons remained around the courthouse.

It rained intermittently through the evening, although apparently not hard enough to keep some persons off the streets.

Negroes listen, walk out on NRP speakers

By BOB PAPE

NEWBURGH

A courthouse is normally a place of quiet and dignity. Not so in the Newburgh county courthouse grand jury room Saturday night.

A predominantly Negro crowd of more than 100 filled the main courtroom's 127 gray wooden seats and stood in the aisles to taunt National Renaissance Party National Director James H. Madole and Regional Director Robert J. Burros as the pair proclaimed the motives and beliefs of their racist, neo-Nazi group.

Turned away

On several occasions individual Negroes attempted to approach the speakers' platform but were turned away by Orange County sheriff's deputies armed with riot sticks. One Negro carried a stick of his own and had to be forcibly pushed away by the lawmen.

The speakers appeared well protected as the deputies stationed themselves around the room. Directly in front of the speakers' platform stood half a dozen of what the party leaders termed "security echelon." They were men, ranging, at a guess, from 17 to 30, and dressed alike in uniforms of rumpled white shirts, black trousers, and dark ties. Each had a button bearing the party's thunderbolt insignia pinned either to his tie or shirt.

Burros mounted the platform shortly before 8. Two American flags had been unfurled. One was placed alongside a red, white, and black flag of the party, which also bore the thunderbolt insignia.

Burros began by giving the background of the party. It was formed, he said, by Madole in 1949 in Beacon, where Madole lived 15 years.

Then he launched an attack on Newburgh's urban renewal program.

'Bleeding taxpayers'

The program's administrators were not informing the public of their actions, he said, and at the same time were "bleeding the taxpayers to death."

"The policies of urban renewal are un-American themselves," he declared.

Burros was minutes into his speech. He constantly fingered a brown clipboard at which he repeatedly glanced.

Suddenly, one youth, a Negro, jumped to his feet and pointed an accusing finger at Burros.

"What about the Negro?" he yelled.

"I'll get to that," Burros shot back. He then switched back to the subject of urban renewal.

"How many poor people have jobs in the urban renewal administration?" he asked. He charged that a college student presently holds a $9,000 a year post in the UR administration. Later he identified the student as Alan Lascher, the son of Acting City Judge Mrs. Sadie L. Lascher.

Burros's voice started to rise as he continued:

"The liberal politicians are the paid political prostitutes of the Jewish-invested interests," he declared. Suddenly he began to campaign for election of NRP members to city office.

He said if the people wanted to know "secrets swept under the carpet" they should elect members of the NRP.

Intermittently Burros's comments were met with jeers, curses, vulgarity, four-letter words.

Some 15 minutes after Burros began his speech, the majority of Negroes in the room got up to leave.

'Soul brothers out'

"We want all the soul brothers out," one Negro shouted. "Let the man talk to the walls."

After many had left the room, Burros said he would get more specific on urban renewal "now that the delegation of racists has left."

Burros said "all kinds of subtle persuasions" were used against property owners, "with the purpose of getting him to relinquish his property to urban renewal."

"That's the story behind urban renewal," he said. "It's just a big land grab."

Burros urged white people and black people to form their own community, each to have its own identity.

After Burros repeatedly rapped "the Jewish power structure," the Rev. Fred Schimmel of Walden, identifying himself as a Christian minister, asked Burros what provision he made for the Jew.

"I will answer this men when I get to that part of the speech," Burros said.

Burros, born to a Jewish father and given his Bar Mitzvah into the Jewish adult religious community at Newburgh's Temple Beth Jacob, spent his early years in Newburgh and Middletown. He was graduated from Middletown High School.

NRP administration

He urged the white working class and the black working class to "take a change" and put an NRP administration in office.

Burros charged that when Cassius Clay joined the Muslims and became known as Muhammad Ali, "the Jew who control boxing" wanted to prevent him from fighting. They saw to it, Burros said, that the government gave the fighter a 1-A draft classification.

At this point, the NRP's own lawyer, Jeremiah Gutman, also seated in the audience, rose to refute Burros's statements.

"I'm what you might call a member of the structure of which you speak," he said.

Gutman, a Jew, was declared his abhorrence of the NRP and what it stands for, but, acting as a New York Civil Liberties Union lawyer, obtained a court order directing the city not to interfere with the party's rally. City officials attempted to ban the meeting by declaring the county courthouse unsafe.

Gutman denied that such a power structure of which Burros spoke existed.

Madole mounted the platform, after a laudatory introduction by Burros, and promptly declared he was a "white racist and believed in racism."

One Negro stood up and told Madole he was a veteran of the Korean War and had "fought for America and believed in it."

"I am a white racist," Madole replied, "and I can be proud of that fact."

Couldn't speak

Madole was not given much opportunity to speak. Several Negroes came to the head of the center aisle and shouted at the director over the extended arms of the county deputies. Madole was repeatedly asked what he and his party stood for. Madole had to reiterate his racist position, and urged the separation of communities.

One man, a light-skinned Negro, bluntly told Madole he was a Negro and asked him if he thought he, Madole, was the better of the two. Madole said, based on the background of the two races, that he was.

"My race has built a culture, yours hasn't," he said.

Then, Madole decided the rally should come to an end, "for the good of the city and obviously because nothing is being accomplished here."

He termed much of the rally, "a typical black power shouting session."

the preachers of hate, some had been ejected by sheriff's men when they became too unruly.

Others had been part of a mass exodus at 8, which left the meeting room nearly empty. "Let them talk to the walls," one man shouted. The rest agreed, jeered a couple of times, and left.

They went through the tall massive columns, at the courthouse, down the steps and down the walkway. A wide, green lawn, surrounded by a chain fence, separates the courthouse from Grand Street.

Across this street, and running the length of that short block, is the Palatine Hotel. It has been vacant for eight months, part of the proposed urban renewal project.

the width of the courthouse property and its two side streets, second and Third.

Bravado increases

Behind a rope barricade across Second Street the crowd gathered. Twenty-five or so had been on that corner when the small NRP band arrived.

By 8:20 their number had swollen, reinforced by those from the surrounding ghetto areas, and more of those who had left the meeting.

As their strength increased, so did their bravado. City police filled Grand Street, a no-man's land to other than police and press.

City Manager Paul L. McCauley, had taken full command of the crowd, urging them to remain orderly, and trying to cool a rapidly heating situation.

The crowd grew noisier, hooting and hollering. A couple passed wine bottles back and forth, brandishing them high in the air from time to time.

At 8:25 a pint bottle sailed high in the air from the ranks of the crowd and smashed in the center of the intersection, behind the cordon of police facing the crowd across the rope.

Bottle ignored

Police made no issue of it and stood their ground calmly while the crowd waited for a response. The crowd, apparently assuming it had won a battle of sorts, grew more unruly. They jostled the retaining rope. McCauley and Herbst, working up and down the line talking to three or four at a time, made another plea. They failed.

A man drinking out of a green quart bottle in a paper sack, tipped his head back so all could see the action. The bottle was passed to another man who took a swig. Then it disappeared into the crowd. But not for long.

The bottle reappeared as it sailed over the heads of the police in a lazy arc and smashed a few feet from the first.

The police line tightened. The crowd guffawed, and the sound of the crash and the swift movement of the police merged.

Suddenly the police moved in and snatched one man from the ranks of what was fast becoming a mob. Later they said he was the man who threw the bottle. They said his name was Richard Johnson, a 34-year-old Newburgh resident.

First arrest made

With an officer on each arm, the man was hauled across Grand him into a cell in the courthouse. About a dozen deputies, armed with pump shot guns and tear gas guns, lined up across the building's wide front steps facing the crowd.

At the same time the crowd was yelling threats at the police in the street who stood their ground with riot sticks poised. Release him "or pay," they yelled. There were chants of "Go! Go! Go!"

"Get in there and get him," a white-shirted negro standing to the side of the crowd yelled. At that instant the rope parted, and fell at the feet of the two forces.

The crowd surged to the policemen's left and onto the walk in front of the hotel. As they ran, the police ran parallel to them sidewalk, and plowed the mob, now trapped between the officers still in the street moving in and the hardrushing squad.

In quick step

The squad pushed, never slowing or faltering in its quick step, and the street offices funneled the running mob down Second Street.

When the mob was at full run, the squad halted, reversed direction, and replaced the line of authority where the rope had fallen across Second Street.

Only a few returned. One youth came back to taunt the officers. Few came with him.

Here-and now -- at least the beginning had ended.

NRP Chief Plans More Meetings

James H. Madole, leader of the neo-Nazi National Renaissance Party, said Saturday that Newburgh would be the base of operation for his Hudson Valley operations.

The director of the hate organization said that he expected to have more meetings in the city and was planning a Poughkeepsie meeting.

Mr. Madole talked with reporters following a meeting with Newburgh City Manager Paul L. McCauley and Police Chief John E. Tierney in which the manager laid down the rules by which the NRP's conduct in the city would be judged. The meeting was private.

Mr. McCauley said that he advised Madole:

—That he could use the courthouse from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. That the group was not to arrive at the courthouse before 7:30.

—That they were not going to wait for the start of the rally at police headquarters.

—That they could use Newburgh streets to get to and from the courthouse but that they were not going to be escorted. However, at the conclusion of the meeting police did transport the group of about 11 NRP members away from the area in the police van.

—That he and his group faced arrest if they caused a disturbance of the peace.

Mr. McCauley said that in allowing use of the courthouse he was not giving Madole "license to taunt the people."

Attendance in the courthouse was limited to 127—the building's capacity under fire regulations.

Mr. McCauley returned to City

Hall for the evening's activities about 4:30 p.m. He had his entire police force — 66 men — plus 30 deputies in the city. Fire stations were fully manned with off-duty firemen on stand-by. State police were in contact with the Governor's office.

Police started reporting about 5:15 and were all at headquarters by 5:30 where they received final instructions and then went out to take their posts.

Night sticks, handcuffs and gas masks were very much in evidence.

Parking was restricted on Grand and Liberty Streets and the streets themselves were blocked off to traffic by public works vehicles at the outer limits. Closer in there were wooden "horse" barricades and finally the area around the courthouse proper was blocked off by rope.

Mr. McCauley said that he eliminated parking and traffic to give the police freedom of movement in the event of trouble, and to keep people from getting hurt by being pushed into cars.

Police were at the courthouse from about 6 p.m. on. When the NRP arrived and during the early stages of the meeting less than 100 people had gathered outside. Those who later became disruptive were behind ropes at Grand and Second Streets.

Madole and his group — some 11 persons — arrived at City Hall at 5:30 as a drizzle started. Madole and one of his assistants were the only persons allowed in police headquarters. The others remained outside.

When Madole came out about five minutes later rain was coming down steadily and the group moved on to Broadway where they went under a store canopy. It was here that Madole and Robert Joseph Burros, his regional director, first spoke with reporters.

Speaking of his plans for the Hudson Valley, Madole said, "I intend to keep coming back and little by little grab these towns in the Hudson Valley." He said that Newburgh would be the base of his "right wing movement of the white working class."

Madole estimated that he had 75 to 100 NRP members in Orange County, 1,000 in New York State and 4,000 in the nation. He said there were other subscribers to party literature who were not members.

"I don't wish to endanger the speaking of the rally but added that his men would act in their own defense.

Madole held that if H. Rap Brown, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, and Stokely Carmichael, former chairman, could go all over the United States and Cuba on behalf of the Negro, he had the right to speak in Newburgh on behalf of white people.

Rockwell's Rival 'Not Surprised'

By JOSEPH CASSIDY

The man most likely to fill the meager void left by George Lincoln Rockwell's sudden trip to Valhalla said yesterday he was not surprised by the American Nazi Party chief's murder.

"It was not unexpected," James Madole, the 36-year-old leader of the rival National Renaissance Party said outside the triple-locked and bolted W. 90th St. apartment that serves both as his home and his party's national headquarters.

As leader of the rival party, Madole is probably the second best-known hate peddler in the U. S. With the death of Rockwell, he will almost automatically move to the position of chief spokesman for the far-out right-wing fringe whose members ape Hitler's brown shirts.

"I suspected that Rockwell might be the victim of violence at the hands of one of his own followers," Madole said. "There have been reports of mass defections because of the way he treated his men—many rebelling against the Spartan life he enforced on those who lived in the barracks of his Arlington headquarters."

The sentiment was echoed by 17-year-old James McElwee, a member of Madole's "security echelon," a collection of youngsters whose function is to protect Madole when he speaks in public.

McElwee was the first person to call Madole's home when the radio flashed the news of Rockwell's death. The call was taken by Madole's mother, Mrs. Grace Madole, a lady of middle years, who said McElwee's phone call "came like a ton of bricks." She said she was reading a "detective story, a real good murder," when she got the news.

While Madole and Rockwell never saw completely eye-to-eye on ideology, they were personal friends, Madole said. "We were both fighting Communism as best we knew," he declared.

Racial Matters

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by James H. Madole, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of James H. Madole at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that James H. Madole, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to members and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.

ReNYtel to Bureau 9/11/67 captioned "National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, Information Concerning (IS)."

Above-referenced teletype indicated that members of the National Renaissance Party, American Nazi Party, White Party of America, United Klans of America, and possibly members of the John Birch Society would meet on a Sunday in the immediate future in Alexandria, Virginia, for a two-fold purpose. One, to discuss the merging of several right-wing groups and two, to make plans for a counterdemonstration by these groups in Washington, D. C., in October, 1967.

The above meeting will most probably take place at the White Party of America headquarters in Alexandria. It is noted that Sunday is their usual meeting day. Richmond should assign their White Party of America sources to cover this meeting. Promptly advise the Bureau, appropriate Government agencies, and interested offices under the White Party of America caption of all attempts by Karl Allen, leader of the White Party of America, to merge with or take over the America Nazi Party as well as the National Renaissance Party.

Information developed by offices receiving this communication pertaining to plans by any of these right-wing groups to counterdemonstrate in the forthcoming October demonstrations in Washington, D. C., by the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam should be promptly furnished to the Bureau under the National Mobilization Committee caption.

A confidential source advised on September 10, 1967, that in the near future, probably on a Sunday, several right-wing groups will meet in Alexandria, Virginia. James Madole, leader of the National Renaissance Party (NRP) will attend. The purpose is to discuss a re-organization of the right-wing and also to discuss a counter demonstration by these groups on October 21 - 22, 1967, in Washington, D. C.

According to this source, James Madole, leader of the NRP and representatives of the American Nazi Party (ANP), White Party of America (WPA), the United Klans of America (UKA) and possibly the John Birch Society, will attend this meeting in Alexandria.

The source believes that in view of the fact that Madole has been in contact with Karl Allen, leader of the WPA, which has its headquarters in Alexandria, Virginia, he presumes that the meeting of the right-wing groups will be at the WPA headquarters.

The NRP, WPA and UKA are further identified in the appendix.

The ANP is further identified in the appendix under the caption National Socialist White People's Party.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, The World Union of
Free Enterprise National Socialists,
The George Lincoln Rockwell Party

In his book, "This Time The World", copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader", a Richmond, Virginia daily newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that ANP-WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this Party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third stage, to wit, "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda". The source added that ROCKWELL had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

On December 27, 1966, the source advised that ROCKWELL mailed a communication to all members of the ANP entitled, "National Directive from the Commander, Effective 1/1/67". This communication reflected that the formal name of the Party would be "National Socialist White People's Party" and they would still be known as the "American Nazi Party" and "American Nazis" for short.

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several Southern states.)

Second source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Third source advised on August 4, 1965, that the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several Southern states. This source said that ROBERT M. SHELTON is the Imperial Wizard of this organization, and was last elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. Source said that the activity of the United Klans of America is increasing and that the national office remains in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

WHITE PARTY OF AMERICA

On March 13, 1967, Karl Rogers Allen, Jr., who identified himself as leader of the White Party of America (WPA), advised that he, with several other former members of the American Nazi Party (ANP), formed the WPA during the early part of 1964 in order to advance the cause of the white man in the United States and eventually throughout the world.

This organization was officially launched on April 11, 1964. The National Headquarters was transferred from 1216 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., to 1019 King Street, Alexandria, Virginia, on April 1, 1965.

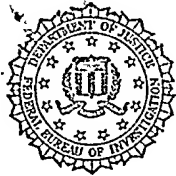

It was initially the aim of the WPA to sponsor picketings and demonstrations where it was believed such would be of value to publicize its program through pamphlets and similar media.

Allen stated that the WPA is a racist-type organization with approximately 50 members, 40 of whom are from the Washington, D. C. metropolitan area. Approximately 150 persons or organizations subscribe to the official paper of the WPA, "The White World".

Allen stated that the purpose of the organization is political in nature and definitely non-subversive but adheres completely to the Constitution of the United States.

"America For Whites, Asia For Asiatics."

"G.I.'s Die While Jews Make Profits."

"Johnson is Working For Blacks, as Madole is Working For Whites."

According to Madole, following the march to the White House, the NRP and WPA members, as well as any other right-wing groups participating, will go to WPA headquarters in Alexandria, Virginia, to hold a convention in order to discuss a reorganization of the "right-wing".

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, The World Union of
Free Enterprise National Socialists,
The George Lincoln Rockwell Party

In his book, "This Time The World", copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader", a Richmond, Virginia daily newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that ANP-WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party-headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this Party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third stage, to wit, "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda". The source added that ROCKWELL had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

On December 27, 1966, the source advised that ROCKWELL mailed a communication to all members of the ANP entitled, "National Directive from the Commander, Effective 1/1/67". This communication reflected that the formal name of the Party would be "National Socialist White People's Party" and they would still be known as the "American Nazi Party" and "American Nazis" for short.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations on the African continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.
5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont", a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt", self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party", with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that NSRP is composed of past members of the Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue No. 19, dated June, 1960, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

Issue No. 69, dated July, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the new headquarters of the NSRP as Post Office Box 184, Augusta, Georgia.

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt", is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

Issue No. 72, dated November, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" reflects Dr. EDWARD R. FIELDS to be National Director of the NSRP as well as Editor of "The Thunderbolt".

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

WHITE PARTY OF AMERICA

On March 13, 1967, Karl Rogers Allen, Jr., who identified himself as leader of the White Party of America (WPA), advised that he, with several other former members of the American Nazi Party (ANP), formed the WPA during the early part of 1964 in order to advance the cause of the white man in the United States and eventually throughout the world.

This organization was officially launched on April 11, 1964. The National Headquarters was transferred from 1216 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., to 1019 King Street, Alexandria Virginia, on April 1, 1965.

It was initially the aim of the WPA to sponsor picketings and demonstrations where it was believed such would be of value to publicize its program through pamphlets and similar media.

Allen stated that the WPA is a racist-type organization with approximately 50 members, 40 of whom are from the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. Approximately 150 persons or organizations subscribe to the official paper of the WPA, "The White World".

Allen stated that the purpose of the organization is political in nature and definitely non-subversive but adheres completely to the Constitution of the United States.

The WPA will not identify themselves as such, but will march under NRP banners. James Madole, Director NRP, expects 15 or 16 to go by automobile to Washington with the NRP.

The NRP will leave NRP Headquarters in New York City about 3:00 am on October 21, 1967, arrive in Alexandria, Virginia, WPA Headquarters, about 9:00 am, where two thirds of the NRP group will don Nazi type uniforms for a counter demonstration beginning at 12 noon at Lincoln Memorial. However, that location afforded few observers and no reporters or photographers who could afford them publicity.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

3. The Jewish race shall be deprived by suitable legislation of their American citizenship and shall henceforth be prohibited from holding any professional, political or educational posts within the Racial Nationalist State. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national bloodstream and, as such, he must be purged from our cultural, economic, and political life.
4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations on the African continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.
5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, The World Union of
Free Enterprise National Socialists,
The George Lincoln Rockwell Party

In his book, "This Time The World", copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader", a Richmond, Virginia daily newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that ANP-WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this Party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third stage, to wit, "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda". The source added that ROCKWELL had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

On December 27, 1966, the source advised that ROCKWELL mailed a communication to all members of the ANP entitled, "National Directive from the Commander, Effective 1/1/67". This communication reflected that the formal name of the Party would be "National Socialist White People's Party" and they would still be known as the "American Nazi Party" and "American Nazis" for short.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont", a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt", self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party", with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that NSRP is composed of past members of the Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue No. 19, dated June, 1960, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

Issue No. 69, dated July, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the new headquarters of the NSRP as Post Office Box 184, Augusta, Georgia.

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt", is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

Issue No. 72, dated November, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" reflects Dr. EDWARD R. FIELDS to be National Director of the NSRP as well as Editor of "The Thunderbolt".

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

WHITE PARTY OF AMERICA

On September 16, 1965, KARL ROGERS ALLEN, Jr., who identified himself as the leader of the White Party of America (WPA), advised that he, along with several other former members of the American Nazi Party (ANP), formed the WPA during the early part of 1964, in order to advance the cause of the white man in the United States and eventually throughout the world.

This organization was officially launched on April 11, 1964, when it sponsored picketing in Washington, D.C., Richmond, Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, in opposition to civil rights legislation and civil rights demonstrations. Its national headquarters was transferred from 1216 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., to 1019 King Street, Alexandria, Virginia, on April 1, 1965.

It was initially the aim of the WPA to sponsor picketings and demonstrations where it was believed such would be of value and to publicize its program through pamphlets and similar media. The WPA has been inactive due to a lack of funds and its only publications to date have been the April and May, 1964, issues of its official publications, "The White Letter."

He added that the WPA is still in the formative stage but it will uphold the Constitution of the United States and will always act within the limits of the law. He noted that the WPA will serve as a "home for people who want to preserve the white race" and cannot find a home for themselves in either of the major political parties in the United States.

The American Nazi Party is characterized separately.

The article stated that speakers would include Rockwell
Kent, artist and National Chairman of the NCASF, Jessica Smith, Editor of the "New World Review" (NWR), and Carolyn Black, National Field Secretary of the W.E.B.
DuBois Clubs. Dr. Corliss Lamont, first head of the NCASF, Characterizations of the NWR and W.E.B. DuBoix Clubs of America (DCA) are attached hereto.

Carolyn Ann Black

On October 19, 1967, a source advised that Carolyn Ann Black is currently employed full time as Field Director of the National DCA, at the National Office of the DCA, located in New York City.

Rockwell Kent

Rockwell Kent, a well-known artist and writer, in his autobiography "It's Me, O Lord," published in 1955, deplores the fact that his name is listed as affiliated with only 85 groups on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations.

Corliss Lamont

On September 28, 1953, Louis F. Budenz, a Communist Party (CP), United States of America (USA) functionary until he broke with the CP in 1945, testified before the United States Senate Preliminary Investigations Sub-Committee that Earl Browder, as Head of the CP in the US, had referred to Corliss Lamont as one of the "four prides" of the CP, because Lamont was ready to cooperate with any Communist front or any Communist cause. Browder made this reference before the National Committee of the CP in the early 1940's. Budenz also recalled that Lamont was a member of the CP when he, Budenz, was a member.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Jessica Smith

On July 5, 1950, Louis F Budenz stated that Jessica Smith was a trusted Communist. He said that he had met her as a leading member of the CP at meetings which took place at CP Headquarters. According to Budenz, Jessica Smith's specific assignment was to extend the influence of pro-Sovietism in the US.

On November 7, 1967, a second source advised the above scheduled NCASF rally was held at Carnegie Hall, New York City, on that date, celebrating the Jubilee Anniversary of the USSR, and that about 1,700 people attended the rally.

The above source stated that Reverend Richard Morford, Executive Director of the NCASF, opened the meeting at 8:02 p.m. He introduced Carl Griffler as a candidate for Doctorate at New York University and as the new Student Director of the NCASF. Morford announced that a book by Elizabeth Moos entitled "Soviet Education" was recently published and 3,600 copies were ready to be mailed to colleges and universities. Morford made a collection speech and a collection followed.

Dr. Corliss Lamont was introduced as the chairman of the rally. Lamont stated the Russian Revolution of 1917 was so very important because it was the very first socialist revolution in history. He spoke of "President Johnson's War" against Vietnam, and said the USSR and the socialist world was waiting for the 1968 national elections to bring a drastic change in our foreign policy. He stated that since 1945 our government has fermented the "Soviet threat myth" and "Cold War" to stimulate a capitalistic, imperialistic war machine, while the Soviets have strived for coexistence and peace. He stated the truly great inspiration and only inspiration to all socialist movements and national liberation movements has been the Soviet Union. He stated the Soviets have strived to build a better life for mankind and that "we salute" them for achievements in art, science, working conditions, peace, etc.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Rockwell Kent was introduced as the winner of the Lenin Peace Prize. Kent stated "We must love the Russians, we must extend our hands, now bloody, we must extend them cleansed after we rid ourselves of the blight of the prejudice, racism, capitalism, imperialism, war mongering." Kent stated "We must get rid of the bunch now running our government and thus earn the friendship of the Soviets."

Miss Carolyn Black was the next speaker. She stated the US faces the same problems that the Bolsheviks faced 50 years ago, and that "National Liberation" movements are threatened by the same forces that threatened the Bolshevik movement. She stated "we" can pay tribute to the Soviet Union by putting an end to American intervention around the world. She stated the "black people" are rebelling today against America's imperialism, and that "the Vietnamese cause is our cause." She stated "Down with the rulers of the United States," "Down with Mc Namara," "Down with Rusk," "Down with President Johnson," and "Long live the successful revolution of the Soviet Union."

Jessica Smith, Editor of the NWR, spoke next. She stated "The ten days that shook the world also changed the world forever." She said that without the patient dedication of the Soviets to peaceful coexistence, we may have had a nuclear war and possibly no world today. She said that today the USSR is 70 times greater than before the revolution, that it has rebuild itself twice (1917 and 1945), and that only a socialist regime could accomplish this. She stated that no capitalist country could make these accomplishments. She stated that no Soviet soldiers are killing anyone on earth and no Soviet bombs are falling. She stated that "our duties" as Americans are to protest and resist the war in Vietnam until the bombing is stopped and our troops withdrawn, and "may the Soviets continue to build a communist society in a world of peace and freedom."

Corliss Lamont announced the NCASF had hoped to have as a guest speaker from the USSR, the President of the Academy of Social Science, but stated he was denied a passport by the US Department of State because his appearance here would not be before a group representing the mainstream of American thinking. Lamont predicted that we in America had 150 years to develop our democracy and our Bill of Rights. He predicted that the Soviets, after 150 years of existence, will be closer to democracy and the Bill of Rights than we are. Lamont stated that "this group here is the mainstream and we will show them in due course."

Vladislav Petrovich Ivanov, Third Secretary, Public Relations and Cultural Officer, Soviet Mission to the United Nations, was present and represented Soviet Ambassador Federenko, who was unable to attend the rally.

Aleksey Stepunin, First Secretary, Soviet Embassy, Washington, D.C., spoke and extended greetings. Stepunin stated he did not have to say much because the accomplishments of the USSR speak for themselves.

A dramatic film presentation of "Ten Days That Shook The World" was narrated by Ossie Davis, star of screen and television. This 40-year old film, which was made ten years after the Russian Revolution, depicted scenes in Moscow and Petrograd. The actor, depicting Lenin, was enthusiastically cheered. The rally ended about 10:41 p.m., after the showing of this film.

Ossie Davis

A third source advised during the latter part of 1963 that a CP functionary stated that Ossie Davis and his wife, Ruby Dee, were then CP members.

Carl Griffler

On August 29, 1966, a fourth source advised that Carl Griffler attended a meeting of the New York District CP Board which was held on August 18, 1966, in New York City.

Elizabeth Moos

Anita Bell Schneider, a self-admitted CP member from 1951 to 1954, advised that she knew Elizabeth Moos to be a CP member sometime during the above mentioned period.

Richard Morford

Louis F Budenz advised on June 29, 1950, that Richard A. Morford was the Executive Secretary of the NCASF and that he met Morford at least once in an enlarged committee meeting of the CP around 1943, and for a time thereafter, Morford had been known to him as a Communist, such reports arising from Morford's activity in certain Communist front organizations. Budenz stated he had been told by Eugene Dennis, National CP Functionary at that time, of Morford's Communist affiliations; and that as late as 1945, Jack Stachel, another CP functionary, told Budenz that Morford was a Communist.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

The Jewish race shall be deprived by suitable legislation of their American citizenship and shall henceforth be prohibited from holding any professional, political or educational posts within the Racial Nationalist State. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national bloodstream and, as such, he must be purged from our cultural, economic, and political life.
4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations on the African continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.
5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The second source advised in September, 1966, that MIKE ZAGARELL, CPUSA Youth Director, stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA. This source also advised in September, 1966, that DANIEL RUBIN, CPUSA National Organizational Secretary, stated the Party believes the DCA should have a working class outlook and be a mass organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and Marxism, and in April, 1967, GUS HALL, CPUSA, General Secretary, indicated that the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing mass resistance to the draft.

A third source advised in September, 1967, that JARVIS TYNER was elected chairman of the DCA on September 10, 1967, near the conclusion of the Third National Convention of the DCA held in New York, New York, from September 8-10, 1967.

A fourth source advised during August, 1967, that JARVIS TYNER is a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

A fifth confidential source advised on September 21, 1967, that the headquarters of the DCA is located at 34 West 17th Street, New York, New York.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY SPONSORS MASS RALLY FOR THE RESTORATION OF "WHITE POWER" IN THE UNITED STATES !
WE DEMAND "CIVIL RIGHTS" FOR WHITE TAXPAYERS!

A Few Of The Vital Issues To Be Discussed On December 8th.

- 1) Depraved American politicians catering to racial minority voting blocs, in collusion with Red educators in our public school system and universities, have lowered the educational level of our institutions of learning to meet the needs of the Negro while deliberately holding back the mental development of your white children !
Black and Jewish children have been inflamed with nationalistic and racial passions whereas young Whites have been taught to despise their own European ancestors as "exploiters of the dark races" and "White imperialists". History and biology texts have been distorted to produce the illusion of non-existent Negro civilizations in Africa and tremendous (though strictly imaginary) colored contributions to the arts and sciences.
- 2) The NRP supports our gallant fighting men in Vietnam but we oppose the idiotic notion of fighting endless "NO WIN" brushfire wars on the Asian Continent for the benefit of crooked black marketeers, corrupt politicians, and unscrupulous millionaires who gain financially from America's misery.
Those "peaceniks" who applauded the destruction of German cities like Dresden and Cologne are loudest in their demands to spare Hanoi from bombing !
- 3) Our enormous TAX BURDEN, coupled with the ever-rising cost of living, is bankrupting both the masses of American white collar workers and small business owners. Except for a few millionaires and corrupt politicians nearly every strata of American society is either living in heavily mortgaged homes or living on credit buying. Poor White families are forced to abide within integrated government housing projects where they live in fear of their lives while our bureaucrats dwell in beautiful new duplex apartments.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, the World Union of Free
Enterprise National Socialists,
the George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On September 8, 1967, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS) was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by ADOLF HITLER. The ANP - WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party", according to Commander ROCKWELL.

On August 25, 1967, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun", a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that MATTHIAS KOEHL, Jr., took command of the Party after ROCKWELL's assassination.

National Renaissance Party APPENDIX

WHITE PARTY OF AMERICA

On September 16, 1965, KARL ROGERS ALLEN, Jr., who identified himself as the leader of the White Party of America (WPA), advised that he, along with several other former members of the American Nazi Party (ANP), formed the WPA during the early part of 1964, in order to advance the cause of the white man in the United States and eventually throughout the world.

This organization was officially launched on April 11, 1964, when it sponsored picketing in Washington, D.C., Richmond, Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, in opposition to civil rights legislation and civil rights demonstrations. Its national headquarters was transferred from 1216 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., to 1019 King Street, Alexandria, Virginia, on April 1, 1965.

It was initially the aim of the WPA to sponsor picketings and demonstrations where it was believed such would be of value and to publicize its program through pamphlets and similar media. The WPA has been inactive due to a lack of funds and its only publications to date have been the April and May, 1964, issues of its official publications, "The White Letter."

He added that the WPA is still in the formative stage but it will uphold the Constitution of the United States and will always act within the limits of the law. He noted that the WPA will serve as a "home for people who want to preserve the white race" and cannot find a home for themselves in either of the major political parties in the United States.

The American Nazi Party is characterized separately.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 28, 1966, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

3. The Jewish race shall be deprived by suitable legislation of their American citizenship and shall henceforth be prohibited from holding any professional, political or educational posts within the Racial Nationalist State. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national bloodstream and, as such, he must be purged from our cultural, economic, and political life.
4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations on the African continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.
5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, the World Union of Free
Enterprise National Socialists,
the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On September 8, 1967, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP-WUFENS) was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by ADOLF HITLER. The ANP-WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party," according to Commander ROCKWELL.

On August 25, 1967, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun," a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR. took command of the Party after ROCKWELL's assassination.

[redacted] further advised there will be approximately 24 members of the Jewish War Veterans (JWV) who will attend the NRP meeting. They will attend as observers and will not demonstrate or heckle the speakers. However, during the question period they will ask

Re: National Renaissance Party

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 11, 1967, that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) Rally was held as planned at Public School 169, East 87th Street, New York City, on December 8, 1967. The meeting was attended by approximately 80 people and lasted from 7:00 to 9:30 p.m. He advised the group was addressed by a number of NRP members, (First Name Unknown) Wagner, Dick Bayer and James Madole. Wagner spoke on the Security Echelon of the NRP and encouraged young white men to join. Bayer spoke of economic problems facing the nation and high taxes. He advised that taxes will go even higher if we do not get rid of the Jew controlled politicians. Bayer ended his speech by denouncing the Jews as money hungary. Madole spoke last, and stated the Negro is out to kill the white man and that, therefore, we should do the same to him. He said that it only makes sense to kill your enemy. Madole further stated the country would crumple if the running of it was left to the colored and the Jews. The confidential source advised there were no arrests. A girl heckler was ejected, but later returned.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the NRP sponsored the rally on December 8, 1967, for the restoration of "white power" in the United States and to demand "civil rights" for white taxpayers. The meeting lasted from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., and there were 60 people in attendance. James Wagner, NRP member, opened the meeting and stated that all Negroes should be sent back to Africa, and all Jews deported to Israel. Richard Bayer, NRP member, spoke about our nation's economy. He accused the Jews of monopolizing business and high political jobs. The source advised that James Madole, NRP leader, stated that if he was President of the United States, he would not let any Jews into this country, and would deport the Jews and Negroes already in the country. Madole further stated he would do away with relief payments and described the Vietnam War as a "no-win war". He stated most of the politicians and businessmen support the war only because they are deriving profits from it. He also stated we are also not winning the war because there are so many Communists in high positions in the Government. The source also advised that during the speeches, a group of four Jewish people in the audience heckled Madole. They wore black eye patches and rattled newspapers. At one point, Madole told them to either shut up or leave. Madole sent Louis Mostaccio out for a police officer. The group of Jewish people left and then returned. There were no arrests, and none of the NRP members wore uniforms.

A third source, contact with whom has been insufficient to determine reliability, advised the NRP Rally was held on December 8, 1967, from 7-10 p.m. at Public School 169, East 87th Street, New York City, with approximately 60 persons in attendance, including a large number of plain-clothesmen from New York City Police Department. During a speech by James Madole, a group of four Jewish demonstrators were asked to accompany a New York City Police Department Captain outside. After some discussion, the group returned agreeing not to disrupt the meeting again.

The NRP is characterized in the Appendix Section of this communication.

Re: National Renaissance Party

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

3. The Jewish race shall be deprived by suitable legislation of their American citizenship and shall henceforth be prohibited from holding any professional, political or educational posts within the Racial Nationalist State. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national bloodstream and, as such, he must be purged from our cultural, economic, and political life.
4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations on the African continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.
5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

12/8/67

On Dec. 8, 1967 "The National Renaissance Party", sponsored a public meeting at P.S. 169 located on E. 87th St. between Lexington and Park Avenues in Manhattan.

Between eighty and eighty five people attended and the meeting was orderly except for a slight disturbance caused by four people wearing eye patches.

JAMES WAGNER gave a brief description of the S.E. section of the N.R.P., then introduced Mr. "Richard Bayer" or what sounded like "Bear" as pronounced by MR. WAGNER. He is "the dynamic new speaker" announced in the leaflet which advertised the meeting and who was described as having a receding chin in a previous report.

MR. MADOLE spoke along the general lines he has pursued all along, adding nothing new or unknown as regards his political ideas.

A young lady present distributed copies of the "White Power" paper produced by the American Nazi Party.

MR. HENRY GLADSTONE was present at the meeting along with a Jewish friend of his who is also a member of the Peter Fector Brigade.

During the question and answer period a man whom MR. MADOLE identified as MR. O'BRIAN injected the idea that perhaps MR. MADOLE gets his money from the Communists which of course MADOLE denied. MR. O'BRIEN claimed to be a member of the "respectable right" and had recently been a guest on the Allen Burke Show.

The meeting terminated at 10 PM without incident.

A characterization of the National Renaissance Party (NRP) has been set forth in the appendix of this report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters

[Redacted]

b7D

(NY T-1, 11/6/67)

The National Headquarters of the NRP continues to be maintained at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York, which address is also the residence of JAMES MADOLE, National Director of the NRP.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

B. Objective

[Redacted]

b7D

(NY T-1, 9/5/67)

[Redacted]

b7D

(NY T-1, 9/12/67)

The objectives of the NRP continue to be the same as those set forth in the "Program of the NRP" as printed and distributed in October, 1965. This program has as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a constitutional convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program, which program calls for the establishment of a strong centralized "Racial Nationalist State" on the North American Continent.

This "Program of the NRP" contains the objectives of the NRP in connection with various aspects of Government, such as a racial program, economic program, foreign policy program, social program, and Governmental program.

The anti-Negro and anti-Jewish nature of the NRP are exemplified by the following portions of the Racial program, as set forth in the "Program of the NRP".

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislature to prohibit intermarriage between whites and non-whites.
3. The Jewish race, which constitutes the motivating financial and intellectual backbone of the left wing revolutionary activity in the United States, as manifested in the so-called "Negro civil rights movement", shall be deprived by suitable legislation of their American citizenship and shall henceforth be prohibited from holding any professional, political or educational posts within the Racial Nationalist State. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national bloodstream and, as such, he must be purged from our cultural, economic and political life.
4. Enact legislation to hasten the repatriation of American Negroes to the newly independent black nations of the African Continent under the auspices and guidance of black nationalist leadership in the United States.

NY 105-6112

5. The establishment of a selective immigration policy whose primary purpose is to attract the best European racial stock to the North American Continent in order to utilize their vast energy and talent in the task of creating a dynamic, expanding White Empire capable of withstanding the encroachments of the primitive, colored world led by the Oriental colossus, Red China.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

C. Officers

A leaflet distributed to announce a Mass Rally for the Restoration of "White Power" in the United States, sponsored by the NRP listed the speaker at the rally as: JAMES H. MADOLE, Leader of NRP.

(NY T-6, 11/30/67)

JAMES MADOLE, Founder of the NRP, continues to serve as National Director and [redacted]

[redacted] There are no other officers and the NRP remains completely controlled and dominated by JAMES MADOLE.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

D. Security Echelon

The Security Echelon (SE) continues to function as a select group within the NRP. It has as its main purpose the protection of sneakers at NRP rallies and functions.

[redacted] is [redacted] in the SE and LOUIS MOSTACCIO is a Lieutenant in the SE. There are nine SE members in the men's division and the women's division is currently non-existent. The SE no longer uses [redacted] as headquarters of the SE.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

E. Membership

There are approximately 20 active members of the NRP. MADOLE makes exaggerated claims of membership ranging as high as 2,000 members. He refers to anyone who has ever corresponded with him as a member.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

II. LOCAL CHAPTERS

There are no local chapters of the NRP known to exist outside New York City.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

III. ACTIVITIES OF THE NRP

A. Status of the NRP

The NRP holds regularly scheduled Thursday night meetings at its headquarters, 10 West 90th Street, New York City, and Sunday afternoon and evening socials at the same location.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

B. Meetings Held

(NY T-1, 6/26/67 - 12/19/67)

C. Public Gatherings, Demonstrations and Literature Distributions

An article dated July 19, 1967, appearing in the "Times Herald Record", Middletown, New York, stated that Mayor JOSEPH X. MULLEN, asked the Orange County Supervisors to prevent the National Renaissance Party from meeting in Newburgh on July 29, 1967. The city council of Newburgh backed Mayor MULLIN.

The "Times Herald Record", Middletown, New York, dated July 25, 1967, in an article entitled "Newburgh Bars Rally by NRP, Cites Fire Laws" stated that the City of Newburgh barred the NRP from holding a rally at the Orange County Court House. NRP National Director JAMES H. MADOLE of New York said, "We'll meet on the courthouse steps or lawns if necessary".

"The Evening News", Newburgh, New York, on July 31, 1967, contained an article entitled "Racist Speakers Taunted During Boisterous Rally". The article stated that JAMES H. MADOLE and ROBERT BURROS, a member of the NRP, were the only speakers. There were 26 Negroes in the audience of 40 people. Within 10 minutes the audience dwindled to three Negroes and nine whites. MADOLE claimed the white race is menaced by a colored revolution throughout the world led by 740 million Chinese. MADOLE told the Negroes, "You need a black national community but it doesn't come about by burning cities." The meeting lasted for an hour and forty minutes.

The NRP will hand out leaflets on September 11, 1967, in the vicinity of City Hall, New York City. These leaflets are anti-Negro and bear the caption "Has Your Mother Been Raped Yet?"

JAMES MADOLE, NRP leader, has announced he will demand the arrest of any individuals who attempt to disrupt the White Power Rally sponsored by the NRP on December 8, 1967, at PS 169, New York City.

(NY T-5, 12/7/67)

On December 8, 1967, the NRP sponsored a public meeting at PS 169 located on East 87th Street between Lexington and Park Avenue in Manhattan, New York City.

Between 80 and 85 people attended and the meeting was orderly except for a slight disturbance caused by four people wearing eye patches.

JAMES WAGNER gave a brief description of the Security Echelon Section of the NRP. A young lady present distributed copies of the "White Power" paper.

The meeting terminated at 10:00 PM without incident.

(NY T-2, 12/29/67)

D. Forthcoming Activity

MADOLE received a telephone call from the Newburgh, New York News asking him if he plans any public meetings in the Newburgh Schools such as the one that erupted in near riot last summer. MADOLE said that he plans several meetings here in New York before holding any meetings in Upstate New York.

(NY T-1, 12/1/67)

IV. FINANCES

The NRP continues to exist on contributions received by JAMES H. MADOLE. Many of these contributions are of small amounts. The organization also raises some funds by selling pamphlets and the NRP Bulletins at meetings and rallies.

V. PUBLICATIONS AND LITERATURE

An 8½ by 10 inch leaflet announcing a Mass Rally for the Restoration of "White Power" in the United States on December 8, 1967, at Public School 169, 113 East 87th Street, New York City, was received. Some of the items to be discussed on December 8, 1967, were depraved American politicians catering to racial minority voting blocs, the enormous tax burden, the NRP's opposition to the endless "No Win" brushfire wars on the Asian Continent.

(NY T-6, 11/30/67)

"Quo Vadis America" is an 8½ by 13 inch leaflet bearing the name of the NRP. It is a discussion of the United States "catastrophic diplomatic and military support of the Jewish aggression in the Middle East". The leaflet goes on to state "Our continuous suicidal support of the Jewish cause in Palestine has brought about the complete loss of our political influence among 400 million people of the Islamic Faith."

The leaflet advises that the NRP Bulletin is available at a cost of $3.00 per 12 issues by mailing an attached coupon to the NRP, Post Office Box 10, New York, New York.

(NY T-2, 11/21/67)

The NRP Bulletin never comes out on schedule. At times it is delayed until members contribute the money to pay the printer.

(NY T-1, 1/25/68)

VI. AFFILIATION WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

In the near future, several right wing groups will meet in Alexandria, Virginia. JAMES MADOLE, leader of the NRP will attend. The purpose is to discuss a reorganization of the right wing. According to MADOLE, representatives of the ANP, WPA, the NRP, the United Klans of America (UKA), and possibly the John Birch Society will attend. Another purpose of the meeting, according to MADOLE is to discuss a counter-demonstration by right wing groups in Washington, D. C., on October 21, 1967.

NY 105-6112

(NY T-1, 9/10/67)

A characterization of the UKA is included in the appendix of this report.

The NRP and the WPA plan to demonstrate at the Pentagon, Washington, D. C., on October 21, 1967.

(NY T-1, 9/22/67)

Characterizations of the ANP, WPA are included in the appendix of this report.

The NRP, group of nine, arrived at the WPA Headquarters in Alexandria, Virginia, on October 21, 1967. They arrived in a rented station wagon and were dressed in storm trooper uniforms with black boots. They went over to the Pentagon Building in Arlington and may have gone to the Lincoln Memorial to counter-picket against the anti-Viet Nam demonstrations.

(NY T-4, 10/23/67)

At least three Minutemen are members of the NRP it was learned at an NRP social gathering on November 19, 1967.

(NY T-2, 11/21/67)

The NRP had obtained permission from the New York City Board of Education to hold an open rally at Public School 169, 113 East 87th Street, New York, New York, on December 8, 1967, commencing at 7:00 PM.

JAMES MADOLE, National Director of the NRP has indicated that some members of the National Socialist White Peoples Party (NSWPP), also known as the ANP, would try to come to New York City from Arlington, Virginia, in order to attend this rally.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 20, 1967, a source advised that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who continues to serve as its National Director and is in complete control of the NRP.

The source further stated that the NRP has its headquarters in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE at 10 West 90th Street, New York, New York. Weekly meetings are held at this location on Thursday evenings.

The source described the NRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic and neo-Fascist organization.

This source stated on July 28, 1966, that JAMES H. MADOLE, as of October, 1965, distributed a printed "program of the NRP", which program had as its announced purpose the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State". According to the program, this would be accomplished by calling a Constitutional Convention to ratify the necessary amendments to the United States Constitution in order to carry out the NRP program for the establishment of a "Racial Nationalist State".

This source further advised that as of July 28, 1966, this "program of the NRP" remains in effect and that the anti-Negro and anti-Semitic nature of the NRP is exemplified by the following excerpts from this program:

1. Enact and rigidly enforce legislation to restrict the benefits of American citizenship to mentally and genetically sound members of the Caucasian race.
2. Enact legislation to prohibit intermarriage between white and non-whites.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, the World Union of Free
Enterprise National Socialists,
the George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On September 8, 1967, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS) was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by ADOLF HITLER. The ANP - WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party", according to Commander ROCKWELL.

On August 25, 1967, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun", a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that MATTHIAS KOEHL, Jr., took command of the Party after ROCKWELL's assassination.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont", a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt", self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party", with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that NSRP is composed of past members of the Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue No. 19, dated June, 1960, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

Issue No. 69, dated July, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the new headquarters of the NSRP as Post Office Box 184, Augusta, Georgia.

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt", is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

Issue No. 72, dated November, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" reflects Dr. EDWARD R. FIELDS to be National Director of the NSRP as well as Editor of "The Thunderbolt".

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.,
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several Southern states.)

Second source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Third source advised on August 4, 1965, that the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several Southern states. This source said that ROBERT M. SHELTON is the Imperial Wizard of this organization, and was last elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. Source said that the activity of the United Klans of America is increasing and that the national office remains in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~APPENDIX

WHITE PARTY OF AMERICA

On September 16, 1965, KARL ROGERS ALLEN, Jr., who identified himself as the leader of the White Party of America (WPA), advised that he, along with several other former members of the American Nazi Party (ANP), formed the WPA during the early part of 1964, in order to advance the cause of the white man in the United States and eventually throughout the world.

This organization was officially launched on April 11, 1964, when it sponsored picketing in Washington, D.C., Richmond, Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, in opposition to civil rights legislation and civil rights demonstrations. Its national headquarters was transferred from 1216 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., to 1019 King Street, Alexandria, Virginia, on April 1, 1965.

It was initially the aim of the WPA to sponsor picketings and demonstrations where it was believed such would be of value and to publicize its program through pamphlets and similar media. The WPA has been inactive due to a lack of funds and its only publications to date have been the April and May, 1964, issues of its official publications, "The White Letter."

He added that the WPA is still in the formative stage but it will uphold the Constitution of the United States and will always act within the limits of the law. He noted that the WPA will serve as a "home for people who want to preserve the white race" and cannot find a home for themselves in either of the major political parties in the United States.

The American Nazi Party is characterized separately.

Are you rugged enough?

The National Renaissance Party which has the reputation of a direct action organization rather than a debating society or a right-wing letter writers club is addressing this recruitment leaflet to every physically fit White American between the ages of 16 and 40. The Security Echelon (SE) or uniformed section of the NRP is being organized to defend White neighborhoods from rampaging Black Mobs and to counteract the hordes of filthy Jewish Beathiks, sexual deviates, and Communist organizers whose "PEACE PARADES" in all major American cities are stabbing our heroic fighters in Vietnam between the shoulderblades.

The John Birch Society will not free America from these marching hordes of malcontents by writing letters to their Congressmen which are promptly filed in the waste paper basket or answered by form letters. The Conservatives and Billy James Hargis will not pray these marching columns of American Reds out of existence. NEARLY HALF THE WORLD HAS FALLEN UNDER THE RED BANNER AND STILL THESE NINCOMPOOPS KEEP HOLLERING OUT THEIR PRAYERS INTERSPERSED WITH FUND RAISING APPEALS.

Our elected officials will only pay heed to their right-wing constituents when they see the blood-crazed hordes of Black revolutionaries which have spread a reign of fear and terror in Los Angeles, Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Rochester etc. BEATEN INTO THE GROUND BY THOUSANDS OF EQUALLY FANATICAL YOUNG WHITE MEN IN THE GRAY, BLACK, AND GOLD UNIFORMS OF A MILITANT WHITE MAN'S PARTY. When Stokely Carmichael, Martin Luther King, Bayard Rustin, and their fanatical disciples who shriek "BURN BABY BURN" and LET'S KILL WHITEY" are driven back into their primitive BLACK environment by infuriated thousands of White youngsters shouting the rallying cry of "WHITE POWER" then American politicians will stop licking the boots of their Jewish taskmasters and help the NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY to build a White Man's empire from the Arctic Ocean to the Gulf of Mexico.

Only uniformed masses of young WHITE PATRIOTS can hope to achieve the unity of purpose to force our politicians to mend their traitorous ways. Apply for an interview to join the Security Echelon of the NRP. Our Leader, Mr. James H. Madole, calls on you to forget useless Conservatism and heed the call of BLOOD and RACE.

The first speaker when the meeting started was Raxax Wagner. This speech took place at about 7:00pm., after the record of John Phillip Sousa's marching music was played. Wagner spoke mainly about the Security Echilon. He said how good it was for all young white men to join the National Renaissance party and especially the SE. He said that there is a case in court which should enable the SE to wear their uniforms. Wagner was also the chairman of the meeting.

The second speaker was Dick Bayer. He spoke of the economic problems that the nation is faced with. He said that the taxes are too high and that they will go higher if we do not get rid of the Jew controlled politicians. He ended his speech by denouncing the Jew's as money hungry people who make profits from the Viet-nam war. He said that they do not want the war to end because if it did, they would lose money.

During Bayer's speech a girl heckler was ejected from the meeting. She came back into the hall later in the evening. She did not cause a disturbance at the time she returned.

The last speaker was Madole. He said that the Negro is out to kill the white man and that therefore, we should do the same to him. He said that it only makes sense to kill your enemy. He said that the white man built this country and that it would crumble if the running of it was left up to the colored and the Jews.

After the speeches there was a question. Many of the questions were planted and asked by members.

At about 9:30pm, the meeting came to an end.

There were no arrests.

There were about 80 - 3-

NY 157-1217

National Renaissance Party (NRP)
Open Rally, PS 169, 113 East
87th Street, NYC, 12/8/67

The NRP sponsored this rally for the restoration of "White Power" in the United States and to demand "civil rights" for white taxpayers. The meeting lasted from approximately 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., and there were approximately 60 people in attendance.

JAMES WAGNER, NRP member, opened the meeting. He stated that all Negroes should be sent back to Africa and that all Jews should be deported to Israel.

RICHARD BAYER, NRP member, was the second speaker. He spoke about our nations economy and the factors that are causing the devaluation of the American dollar. He also accused Jews of monopolizing business and high political jobs.

JAMES MADOLE, NRP leader was the third speaker. He stated that if he was President of the United States, he would not let any Jews into this country under immigration quotas. Concerning the Jews already in this country, he would deport them to Israel and also deport the Negroes to Africa.

MADOLE further stated that if president, he would do away with relief payments. There would be no need for relief payments because he would require that anybody on relief would have to do some work in order to receive payments.

MADOLE also discussed the Vietnam war, describing it as the "no-win war". He stated that most of the politicians and businessmen support the war only because they are deriving profits from the war. Actually, they would be disappointed if our boys should win the war.

MADOLE also claimed that another reason why we are not winning the war is because there are so many Communists in high positions in the United States government. He stated that until we get rid of the Communists in government, we can never win the war.

During the speeches there was a group of approximately four Jewish people in the audience who heckled MADOLE. When this group entered the meeting hall they were all wearing black eye patches. When MADOLE spoke these individuals held up signs about 12 by 15 inches in size and of different colors. When MADOLE mentioned "White Power", this group held up signs which said "Horsepower", "Green Power", "Orange Power".

This group also created a disturbance by rattling newspapers and talking among themselves. At one point MADOLE told them to either shut up or leave. When they continued, MADOLE sent LOUIS MOSTACCIO, NRP member, to summon police officers who were located inside the school building. The leader said something to this group, and the group then left the hall. The group returned shortly but allowed MADOLE to speak.

No arrests were made at this meeting. There were approximately eleven members of the NRP present. None of the NRP members wore uniforms.
